

Meghan Trainor, Hurt Me

you don't get to hurt me

we were good till it wasn't till it all fell apart every tear wasn't worth it so I had to move on we were done from the get go I wouldn't say we were friends but I ain't easy to let go you don't have to pretend you're acting like a child now trying to take your anger out well, get my name out of your mouth if you're just gonna tear me down

don't be so bitter
how about we keep it sweet no need to talk to me like w're enemies no tou were never worth all my energy and just cause you're hurting don't mean you get to hurt me

tell me how can I help you get to the healing? why you gotta have so many feelings?
is you mad for a whole another reason why you gotta have so many feelings?

no tou were never worth all my energy
and just cause you're hurting don't mean you get to hurt me
