

Meghan Trainor, Rainbow

You're as colorful as a rainbow
You're as bright as the moon
Everyone can see your halo
Everybody but you
Go and show 'em all your rainbow
You'll feel better when you do
Come on out when the rain goes
'Cause this world's gonna love you

I've been seein' you drownin'
In all your feelings
'Cause nobody knows
Inside you've been screamin'
And this world's cold
But you ain't alone
No, no, when it's getting dark
I'ma light you up, my love

You're as colorful as a rainbow (Rainbow)
You're as bright as the moon (Moon)
Everyone can see your halo (Halo)
Everybody but you (You)
So go and show 'em all your rainbow, oh (Rainbow)
You'll feel better when you do (Do)
Come on out once the rain goes, oh (Rain goes)
'Cause this world's gonna love you

(They gonna love you)
(They gonna love you)
(They gonna love you)
(They gonna love you)

'Cause you're beautiful, you're intelligent
You're emotional, but you the baddest bish
Ain't no one compared
So why you care
What anybody says about you?

You're as colorful as a rainbow (Rainbow)
You're as bright as the moon (Moon)
Everyone can see your halo (Halo)
Everybody but you (You)
So go and show 'em all your rainbow, oh (Rainbow)
You'll feel better when you do (Do)
Come on out once the rain goes, oh (Rain goes)
'Cause this world's gonna love you

(They gonna love you)
So they gonna love you
(They gonna love you)
Promise they gonna love you
(They gonna love you) I said they gonna love you
(They gonna love you) They gonna love you
(They gonna love you) Oh
(They gonna love you) You're as colorful as a rainbow
And this world's gonna love you
