

Meghan Trainor, Remind Me

I am lost
I'm not myself
And I wouldn't mind being anybody else
And sometimes it's hard being covered in scars
I've run out of shootin' stars and wishin' never helps

And my thoughts stay runnin', runnin', runnin'
The heartbreaks keep comin', comin', comin'
Oh, somebody tell me that I'll be okay

Come and find me (Find me)
Help me put all this behind me (Behind me)
'Cause all that I need is inside me (Inside me)
And only your love can remind me (Remind me)
Remind me (Remind me)

Come and hold me (Hold me)
When all my emotions unfoldin' (Unfoldin')
Tell me you'll always stand by me (Stand by me)
I need you to remind me, remind me

Lost
Where'd my powers go (Go, go)
It's like I've forgotten all
The good I've done before

And my thoughts stay runnin', runnin', runnin'
The heartbreaks keep comin', comin', comin'
Oh, somebody tell me that I'll be okay

Come and find me (Find me)
Help me put all this behind me (Behind me)
'Cause all that I need is inside me (Inside me)
And only your love can remind me (Remind me)
Remind me (Remind me)

Come and hold me (Hold me)
When all my emotions unfoldin' (Unfoldin')
Tell me you'll always stand by me (Stand by me)
I need you to remind me, remind me

Remind me I'm pretty
Remind I'm loved
Remind me that I am way more than enough
And take all this pain, throw it away
Remind me that I'm gonna sparkle again

Come and find me
Help me put all this behind me
'Cause all that I need is inside me (Mhmm)
And only your love can remind me (Remind me)
Remind me (Remind me)

Come and hold me (Hold me)
When all my emotions unfoldin' (Unfoldin')
Tell me you'll always stand by me (Stand by me)
I need you to remind me, remind me

I need you to remind me
I need you to remind me
I need you to remind me, mhmm
