

Melanie Garside, Besides

i can see you back where we were
with your eyes cast close and your long dark curls as we lay down under the sun i was right beside you and we knew our day had to end but we jumped in deep and we took what we need and i watched you dance through the trees i need you here beside me
and we knew our day had to end
and through the deepening dark we were one and slept close under the sun and the moon gave light well enough to know you're here beside me and looking back still i see that you were closer nearer to me than all i've known in the time when you've not been beside me so i'll reach out to you when you sleep and we'll dance and make love there under the trees and i know that you're hearing my song and know i'm there beside you
i know you're here beside me
