

Melanie Martinez, Copy Cat (feat. Tierra Whack)

over my shoulder
eyes peeking and analyze my every move while covering state o a, om cuz you are colder
then ice on my skin wanna get that A plus baby o you take my shit cuz I a, little, right?

I won't call you out teachers saying you get petted why would you stop now you are so desperate cravin' that spotlight shine it on the one's who do their shit cuz lit's their life

but I know the people around you say
"just do what takes to make it all the way"

you're a copy cat
you take it and you leave it, honey
you just like that, just like that you're falling flat
you find someone like me
to bring you up right back
up right back

obsessed whit power
you want it for yourself feeding up misogyny but still you call yourself a feminist if that were really true you wouldn't feel as if I were a current threat to you

find someone else to leech on, lady my blood's for me, not for you, baby college, estate and all your saving my blood's for me, so no more taking anything you can do

I can do better
courageous and clever
I raised the bar higher yesy sir, Broke the record
scuffed up my boots

while I stomp you in Skechers they wanna build like their first name is hector back against wall,, bitch I am a protector from the projects, don't check on my ex
won't you my next move
so I guess you'll be upset don't cry, no baby
you'll find your own way think for yourself, it will all be ok.
copying my lyrics
you can't steal my spirit they lift form my music they're dying to hear it
you wish you related
