

Melanie Martinez, Death

They're carving my name in the grave, again
The flowers are fresh and their faces wet
My body has died but I'm still alive
Look over your shoulder, I'm back from the dead
Lighting all your candles to draw me in Saying all the same things, I'm gone this time
Your words mean nothing, so take 'em back
And meet me here, across the plane
The other side of my foreign land

You aren't around, I sink into the ground
I try to pretend I'm closer to you
Never understand it, you're always on my mind, I cannot help it
I don't wanna be carrying the weight on my shoulders
Death has come to me, kissed me on my cheek, gave me closure
Immortal by design, I'll be meeting you here every time

Back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead , back from the dead
I'm back from the dead back from the dead
I'm back from the dead back from the dead
I'm back from the dead back from the

Death, death, death
Death, death
I'm back

They're saying my name in their prayers, again
I flicker the lights so they understand
I won't say goodbye, I'm right by your side
We're screaming and pleading, this separation ends
Doing all your witchcrafts to pull me in
Burning all your sage to connect our line
I show my presence, you run away, in the fear of ghosts
I try to talk, the barriers are too strong

When you aren't around, I sink into the ground
I try to pretend I'm closer to you
Never understand it, you're always on my mind, I cannot help it
I don't wanna be carrying the weight on my shoulders
Death has come to me, kissed me on my cheek, gave me closure
Immortal by design, I'll be meeting you here every time

Back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead , back from the dead
I'm back from the dead back from the dead
I'm back from the dead , back from the dead
I'm back from the dead back from the dead

Please, don't ever worry
(I'm back from the dead, back from the dead)
(I'm back from the dead, back from the dead)
I know it's part of the plan
(I'm back from the dead, back from the dead)
We all die one day
(I'm back from the dead, back from the dead)
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the dead

I'm back from the dead, back from the dead
I'm back from the dead, back from the
