

MercyMe, Your Kingdom Come

words: Bart Millard music: MercyMe

verse

We long to sit at your feet

We long to see your face

We long to smell the rain of your anointing

We long to be in You

chorus

Hear our hearts oh hear our voice

To you oh God we will rejoice

We are your bride and we wear your ring

Until your return we will sing

That we long to see You bridge

How much longer shall we wait

Till we finally see the sun

Break through the eastern gate

Let your kingdom come

Hallelujah to the Lamb (repeat)
