

Merrick, Infinity

We are all like astronauts
Discovery, infinity
Take my empty body
And discover me, infinity
Forgive the endless longing
So it's crazy you and crazy me

I am
I am
I am
I am
I am infinity

We are all like astronauts
The little prince I want to please
Nevermind your habits absolutely
You encourage me
Forgive the endless longing
So it's crazy you, crazy me

I am
I am
I am
I am
I am infinity

Doesn't matter anyway
He is longing anyhow
Doesn't matter anyway
He is longing anyhow

We're wasting up our lips
They're interlocking, we are centipedes
Take this to the floor
It's interstellar with our blue-black needs
Forgive the endless longing
So it's crazy you, crazy me

I am
I am
I am
I am
I am infinity

Doesn't matter anyway
He is longing anyhow
