

Metalite, Nightmare

Traped in this nightmare
I'm screaming your name
Hoping that someone can hear me
Blinded by darkness alone in the rain
It's insane
Can't get away
Cold wings of agony passing through the air
A distant sound of voices howling in despair
Moving and turning the walls are closing in Frightendet of what's happening my sight is getting dimmed
Suddenly a beacon lights up in the sky
It's here to guide me
From this place before I die
Trapped in this nightmare
I'm screaming your name
Hoping that someone can hear me
Blinded by darkness alone in the rain
It's insane
Can't get away
Into the ashes my body will resign
Desire of freedom helps me to hold the line
Running and hiding struggle to get away
Fear of the darkness is the great masquerade
Faith of life will never fall (Faith of life will never fall)
But now there's nothing left at all
Trapped in this nightmare
I'm screaming your name
Hoping that someone can hear me
Blinded by darkness alone in the rain
It's insane
Can't get away
(Trapped in this nightmare)
(I'm screaming your name)
Trapped in this nightmare
I'm screaming your name
Hoping that someone can hear me
Blinded by darkness alone in the rain
It's insane
Can't get away
Trapped in this nightmare
I'm screaming your name (screaming your name)
Hoping that someone can hear me (someone can hear me)
Blinded by darkness alone in the rain
It's insane
Can't get away
