

Metallica, Time Stopped

(spoken)

its getting closed

(guitars start but still spoken) and if you cant see me...then should i just go?

(all insturments go but still spoken)

for you and for me

(sung)

Wait

cant you feel it?

stirring in the night

the jack of fire the miss of ice

if you cant understand me?

the should i kill you?

Yo!

its to late

its to late for the time

its to late

its to late for you

cause the time stoped

When i'm in da ghetto

i fell so down

but i know i'm true

cause your the hell i'm through but time still roles in but this sh*t is still thick cause i hate you so....

its to late

its to late i tell you

its to late

its to late for me

cause the time stoped

its to late (15x)

JUST DIE so why dont you die ...because i love to much well gusse what honey?

i love you to death

so..

Yo

so

yo

so

yo

so
