

Metro Station, Disco

Woah
Yeah, Yeah

Woah
Yeah, Yeah

I wonder if you're going down
Well, we all know you get lost
And then get found
And then I wonder so

I can't believe that's what you said
I wonder in my sleep
I can't believe that's what you heard can you not defeat

I can't take this
No, I don't like it
I don't know where you are

You know she's dancing at the disco
Woah, She's dying on the floor

I know you're sleeping all alone
You feel suicide
Now you're dying to get out
But its in you deep inside
Do you feel it in your veins
The poison rushing through?
But can't you see it in your heart
I'm still there for you?

I can't take this
No, I don't like it
I don't know where you are

You know she's dancing at the disco
And whoa, she's dying on the dance floor

(Say my name)
You don't even know it
(Well, I am done)
Well, you sure aren't showing it
(Now hold my hand)
You know she's on the dance floor
(Well, I know she's got it)
But still she craves more

Woah
Yeah, Yeah

Woah
Yeah, Yeah

You know she's dancing at the disco
And whoa, she's dying on the dance floor

Yeah, yeah, she's dancing at the disco
Whoa, she's dying on the dance floor

Woah
Yeah, Yeah

Woah

Yeah, Yeah
