

Metronomy, The Most Immaculate Haircut

He's got the most immaculate haircut but with the right dye and shampoo maybe I could too and he's got the most desirable friendship group but boy when you got that hairdo, they're not gonna call you now we got to get together and make some amends I see the girls falling for you, oh she must adore you woah I get this feeling in my bones sometimes its like my legs might fall away a shooting pain runs down my left hand side and I I think of you, oh hush now dont have a baby look at what you gave me you can always grow you know oh hush now
dont have a baby look at what you gave me we can always grow together
