

METZ, Wasted

It always falls apart when the lights turn on
You can't feel your legs,
Can't feel your face
Everybody's gone
You're wasted
You're wasted
You feel no pain
It all adds up to nothing
Over and over again

You're wasted
You're already gone
You're wasted

Now there's nothing left to bring you down
You're hanging from the basement ceiling
Got you're feet off the ground

You're wasted
You're wasted
It's never going stop
Sob story of a bleeding heart
It's going to hurt when you hit rock bottom

I can't take it /8x

You're wasted
You're already gone
You're wasted
You're already gone
