

MGMT, Money To Burn

changing lanes on a saturday break a record did you hear about the fire its such a tragedy lifes lost mothers crying no time to react its getting down to the wire but when the wheels stop turning your in trouble head for the rubble and close your eyes standing on the interstate i can see you coming from a mile away but if youve got some money to burn you can do the talking and ill wait my turn people say its suicide

but nothing from nothing is a real life, yeah
people say its suicide

watching it rain on a saturday, saturday break a brick did you hear about he shooting its a tragedy lifes lost falling hero so close to the end of a successfull trip but when the world stops turning your in trouble

standing on the intersate
you can do talking and ill wait my turn
people say its suicide
but nothing from nothing is a real life, yeah
people say its suicide

people say its suicide
but nothing from nothing is a real life, yeah
people say its suicide
