

Mia Rose, Hold me now

Used to think that I wasn't strong enough
Too afraid of really falling in love
Something told me I could let go with you
And that's how I made my decision to give it a try
I remember smiling the day we met
You were nervous cause you didn't know me yet
Glad I took the time to get close to you
Cause I knew that it would be something I needed to do
So please, hold me now
Cause we've only got tonight
So, hold me now (now, now)
I don't want to think that I was wrong
'Bout what I found
So, hold me now
Now that I've given you all of myself (all of myself)
Need to know it's me and nobody else (nobody else)
Need to know the choice that we made is real (so real)
And that you are feeling the same way, the way that I feel
My emotions making it hard for me (hard for me)
Got me so into you I can hardly breathe (hardly breathe)
My heart is pounding wishing you'd let me know (let me know)
Now that I've let you have me, you wont let me go
So please, hold me now (hold me now)
Cause we've only got tonight (only got tonight)
So, hold me now (now, now)
I don't want to think that I was wrong
'Bout what I found
So, hold me now
Baby, in your arms (in your arms)
Is the only place I feel I belong tonight (tonight)
So, hold me (hold me)
Cause who knows what might happen after tonight
And I'm hoping this was right
So please, hold me now (please, hold me now)
Cause we've only got tonight
So, hold me now (now, now)
I don't want to think that I was wrong (I don't want to be thinking, I made the wrong decision)
'Bout what I found (so hold me)
So, hold me now (just hold me)
Please, hold me now (I need you to hold me)
Cause we've only got tonight (just one night only)
So, hold me now (baby won't you hold me now) (now, now)
I don't want to think that I was wrong
'Bout what I found (so want you to hold me)
So, hold me now (just hold me now)
Please, hold me now
Cause we've only got tonight
Please, hold me now (hold me now)
Cause we've only got tonight (hold me now)
