

MICAR, Burden Down

Ohm sweet lady
If you just could lay your burden down
Please just realize
It's a sigh
That you're color shy
/2x

Like a bird she tries to fly
To live her life
Spread her wings
But it's hard to rise with a happy mind

She's a beauty caught in trap cage
And time of change will emerge
She's gotta shine

If you just could lay your burden down
Please just realize
It's a sigh
That you're color shy
