Michael Ball, We Break Our Own Hearts

(r. kerr/d. black)

If I'm honest, I knew
I'd never share my whole life with you
You knew it too
When you fall in love
You don't think ahead
You believe whatever said

Chorus:
We break our own hearts
We are to blame
We see the things we want to
We break our own hearts
Time after time
Where have our senses gone to

What it is with people like us
They say it'll change a man
We break our own hearts again.

The night you whispered,
"please stay."
I couldn't find one reason to say,
"please go away!"
When you feel the sun
You don't dress for rain
Something you just can't... oh... explain

Chorus

We break our own hearts again
