Michael Bublé (Michael Buble), A Song For You

I've been so many places in my life and time I've sung a lot of songs and I've made some bad climbs I've acted out my life in stages with ten thousand people watching Oh, but we're alone now and I'm singing this song for you I know your image of me is what I hope to be, I've treated you unkindly Oh, but Darling can't you see that, there's no one more important to me Baby, baby, can't you see through me, 'cause we're alone now And I'm singing this song to you, you taught me precious secrets Of a true love withholding nothing, you came out in front When I was hiding, yeah, yeah, but now its so much better If my words don't quite come together, please listen to the melody 'Cause my love is in there somewhere hiding I love you in a place where there is no space or time, I love you for my life You are a friend of mine, and when my life is over Remember, remember, remember when we were together And we are alone now, and I was singing this song to you We were alone, and I was singing, yeah singing We were alone, and I was singing this song for you Singing my song, I'm singing my song for you
