

Michael Woods, In Your Arms (feat. Lauren Dyson)

I've been running in the dark
To a field full of colours
I've been striking for the spark
In the heart of some others
But I was lost before
In an notion of fire
But I'm not anymore

'Cause in your arms
I am home
Bleeding heart
Not alone
In your arms
In your arms

In your arms

I was searching for the light
Like the moon on the water
Sound of sirens in the night
Lift me up take me under
Oh I was lost before
In the waves of thunder
But I'm not anymore

'Cause in your arms
I am home
Bleeding heart
Not alone
In your arms

In your arms
In your arms
In your arms
