Michael Woods, In Your Arms (feat. Lauren Dyso

I've been running in the dark
To a field full of colours
I've been striking for the spark
In the heart of some others
But I was lost before
In an notion of fire
But I'm not anymore

'Cause in your arms I am home Bleeding heart Not alone In your arms In your arms

In your arms

I was searching for the light Like the moon on the water Sound of sirens in the night Lift me up take me under Oh I was lost before In the waves of thunder But I'm not anymore

'Cause in your arms I am home Bleeding heart Not alone In your arms

In your arms In your arms In your arms
