Midlake, Anabel

Bring with you a photograph machine one for anabel and one for me we walked to see the crowd that gathered there ontown square a big parade the flutes got paid i'm glad they made a dragon stage the families nest the bakers test the children a mess and the babies rest the rain is cruel and it's washing away the things there in my head