

Midtown, Knew It All Along

you can say i knew it all along that you were all i wanted to know the pain has made you grow strong the scars inside have made you beautiful stop breathing for me you said it's your right to shun dependence and you shun and you're scared to accept someone to share your regrets when you're aching you go it alone when you want to you take what you need to make you whole i know it's not easy i know i can't feel through what you have been and trust don't come easy
'cause to trust is to depend and who wants to give up that part of them you know you can have it if you want to i'll find you unrelated, cultivated when you wake up incubated in me you're free to leave if you knew it all along
