Midtown, Waiting For The News

I'm still waiting for the news dad, That she's gone and never coming back. I can't go on because the strength I had is gone And I find it hard to get out of bed

Oh yeah, don't you know it's true son, You can never know someone Even though we sleep together we're alone And I find it hard to get out of bed

And we operate but I still feel alone And I can't complain Cause she's beautiful Yes we all have made mistakes

Even though we sleep together we're alone Yes we've all made mistakes Even though we sleep together we're alone And I find it hard to get out of bed
