

Mika Urbaniak, Follow you

Hight in the sky
With no wings
For me to fly
I will follow you
/2x

Deep in the see
With no air
For me to breath
I will follow you

How could I know
That this thing we call love
Will be so impossible?
And there from the star
Will I lost my heart
Will be in love

?Couse the first time then I sow you
I have this single feeling
And now I need to follow you

I will follow you
I will follow you
