Mika Urbaniak, Follow you

Hight in the sky With no wings For me to fly I will follow you /2x

Deep in the see With no air For me to breath I will follow you

How could I know
That this thing we call love
Will be so impossible?
And there from the star
Will I lost my heart
Will be in love

?Couse the first time then I sow you I have this single feeling And now I need to follow you

I will follow you I will follow you
