

Mika Urbaniak, Lovin' Needs A Deadline

Lovin' needs a deadline
Deadline, deadline
You keep on turning up wherever I may be
We fall into each other, somewhat helplessly
Weren't so good at love, worse at staying apart
Only re-breaking our already broken hearts
We both say it's over every single time
But you keep on singing in this heart of mine
We both say it's over, it's our oldest line
Then I find you in my movie acting like you're mine
Throw this a life line, give it all our time
Make up your mind 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Don't come around until you decide
Let's move on through 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
I pick a different place from where we used to go
Somehow you end up still at all my favorite shows
You gave me back my keys, but you're still in my bed
Erased your messages, your voicemail in my head
We both say it's over, every single time
But you keep on singing in this heart of mine
We both say it's over, it's our oldest line
Then I find you in my movie acting like you're mine
Throw this a life line, give it all our time
Make up your mind 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Don't come around until you decide
Let's move on through 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
I let you keep the dog, you walk it on my block
I see all the sings, you want another shot
You try other girls but it goes nowhere
Can't you see that we aren't here but there
We both say it's over, every single time
But you keep on singing in this heart of mine
We both say it's over, it's our oldest line
Then I find you in my movie acting like you're mine
Throw this a life line, give it all our time
Make up your mind 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Don't come around until you decide
Let's move on through 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Throw this a life line, give it all our time
Make up your mind 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Don't come around until you decide
Let's move on through 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Throw this a life line, give it all our time
Make up your mind 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
Don't come around until you decide
Let's move on through 'cause this lovin' needs a deadline
