

Mike Posner, Move On

i wish Tracy Chapman was my friend she would know exactly what to say beginnings always hide themselves in ends at some point I will be ok.

So I got high when I met you
I got high to forget you
I feel pain I don't want to but I have to,
yes, I have to

If I want move on, move on, move on, move on
If I want move on, move on, move on, move on
If I want move on, move on, move on, move on
If I want move on, move on, move on, move on went to see some shaman in Malay to hear some things I wanted to hear everyone just want to feel good everyone just wants to disappear call up girls that live in y hometown to help fill up the minutes lit a match and saged my house down it don't make a difference

So I got high when I met you
I got high to forget you
I feel pain I don't want to
but I have to,
yes, I have to

If I want move on, move on, move on, move on
If I want move on, move on, move on, move on
If I want move on, move on, move on, move on
