

Mikky Ekko, Riot

Mouthy girlfriends talk on cell phones
Leave the TV on

I walk slowly, liquor heavy
Concrete in my bones

I'm not useless, just abusive
No pouting at home

Coz the clock is ticking, the clock is ticking
And I can't figure out why we're not freaking out

We are a riot if we want it
We're sleeping with the dead
We are a riot if we want it
If nothing's happening
Come on, come on, ensue the night
And live the road that leads to fight
We are a riot if we want it
We want it

Never ending politicking

God of fire, building higher
Burn the castle down

Coz the clock is ticking, the clock is ticking
And I can't figure out why we're not freaking out

We are a riot if we want it
We're sleeping with the dead
We are a riot if we want it
If nothing's happening
Come on, come on, ensue the night
And live the road that leads to fight
We are a riot if we want it
We want it

You are a riot if you want it
You are a fire if you want it,
You are a riot if you want it
You are a fire if you want it,
You want it

We are a riot if we want it
We're sleeping with the dead
We are a riot if we want it
If nothing's happening
Come on, come on, ensue the night
And live the road that leads to fight
We are a riot if we want it
We want it
