

Mikromusic, Thank God I'm a Woman

My lips they heal the wounds my skin is the honey and milk the hateness is the love but the love is the life my belly is breedy soil my hand is like growing grass my legs are like the trees my fingers are the soap and water Thank God I'm a Woman
i wear green when im calm i wear black, when i need love and wear red, when i want to make love and i wear white when Im ready to die
Thank God I'm a Woman
