

Miley Cyrus, High

Sometimes i get a ittle too hurt
Got my mind goin' place sit ain't wanna go
Sometimes i get a little too low
And i can't see myslef through the fire and smoke
And you, like a meon light
Shinin' through a door that i can't keep closed
And you,
Like a rolling stone
Always bulting cities on the hearts that you broke

And in my bead
I did my very best saying goodnye
And i don't miss you
But i think of you
And don't know wy
I still feel high
I still feel high
