"If you're reading this... know that I fucking love and appreciate you on the deepest level. I began Because EVERYTHING had changed.

Nature did what I now see as a favor and destroyed what I couldn't let go of for myself.

I lost my house in a fire but found myself in its ashes.

Luckily my collaborators still had most of the music that was burned up in journals and computers

If it were a chapter in my book I guess I would call it "The Beginning" which usually when something

In triumph and gratitude I present to you my 7th studio record, Plastic Hearts. To be released Nov.
