

Miley Cyrus, You

I wanna set off alarms, deal out the cards
Smoke cuban cigars, get kicked outta bars before two
But only if it's with you
And I wanna drive down to Texas, flip off my exes
Get kinda reckless and have wild, wild, wild sex under the moon
But only if it's with you

I got some baggage, let's do some damage
I am not made for no horse and a carriage
You know I'm savage, you're looking past it
I want that late night sweet magic
That forever lasting love
But only if it's with you

Let's crash a wedding in the night, get drunk by the lights
Then I'll pick a fight to make-up on the floor of your room
But only if it's with you
And I wanna cut off my hair and kick off my boots
And dance in the wind just to do it again, yeah, it's true
But only if it's with you, hmm

I got some baggage, let's do some damage
I am not made for no horse and a carriage
You know I'm savage, but you're looking past it
I want that late night sweet magic
That forever lasting
I'm kinda crazy, 'cause that's how you make me
I don't need Jesus, 'cause baby you saved me
I'm down
But only if it's with you, oh

You, only with you, you, you
You, only want you, you, you, you
You, baby it's you
You, only with you
