

Milla Jovovich, Creature

Oh pretty creature
From what door did you arrive?
Oh what madness will you drive me to?
Let me kiss your hand
And send you back smaller than sand
Swimming in your black mind
You often take me off inside my head

Let me take a ride and worship
Your size
Let me take a ride and worship
Your size

Oh I'm dying
Dying myself with colors of you
Remembering our sweet pretending
Oh big lover
Fun will protect like love
Oh most beautiful as the con-creature
Meet me at the motel six
You said you'd always be my lover

Cause there is no place like the snowman
For just another moment
There is no place like the snowman
For just another moment

Let me take a ride and worship your size (x3)
