

Mimi Webb, Amelia

The friends you should've kept around
The friends you shoulda lost
The boys you knew would break your heart
The good one you forgot

The nights you shoulda stayed at home
And chilled out with your mum
Looking back, I wish I had someone

To send a message to that girl, when she ain't got nobody else
Your mistakes, your heartbreaks
Only make you stronger anyway
And when you're older, you'll see life will pass you by
So just enjoy the ride, don't cry
Everything is gonna be just fine

The summers, you and your friends laughed till you nearly cried
And the one where you all grew up went living different lives
The necklace that your dad gave you, the night you turned sixteen
Looking back, I realized what it means

To send a message to that girl, when she ain't got nobody else
Your mistakes, your heartbreaks
Only make you stronger anyway
And when you're older, you'll see life will pass you by
So just enjoy the ride, don't cry
Everything is gonna be just fine

Amelia
Here we are
Amelia
Everything is gonna be just fine

To send a message to that girl, when she ain't got nobody else
Your mistakes, your heartbreaks
Only make you stronger anyway
And when you're older, you'll see life will pass you by
So just enjoy the ride, don't cry
Everything is gonna be just fine