

Mirel Wagner, No Death

My baby has a swollen face long stiff limbs
them eyes are black pits of a place where I've been her hair is long still smells like mud
she answered to my kiss with a rotten tongue

no death can
tear us apart
Repeats /3x

Aaah ah aah

The body is cold
well it's gonna get colder My love will ignite
what was left to smolder I move my hips
in her I am home , I'll keep on loving 'till the marrow dries from her bones

no death can
tear us apart
Repeats /3x

Aaah, ah, aah

All day I stay by her side the death has a claim and a ride to my bride I shut the doors, licker tense and hide
i've heard something moving somewhere outside.

no death can
tear us apart
Repeats /3x

Aaah, ah, aah

But death finds a sneaking through the key whole He's clever and he knows beneath the floor board Death comes to feast like a hideous hungry beast he wants it all
and here he crawls
here he crawls /3x
