Miss Li, Late night heartbroken blues

one two three four five and six beers later I was wild I said baby show me to the bed now cus Ive been sitting here since half past nine been thinking dirty thoughts about you a thousand times come on baby do you feel the same huh? cus I dont want to end up being a tragic heartbroken human being five six seven eight its twelve o clock and its getting late come on dont you feel like going home Ill treat you good if you treat me bad and III give you the best lovin that youve ever had shut up and take me by the hand cus I dont want to end up being a tragic heartbroken human being and he said something like this: sure babe, III take you home but in the morning youll be on your own again and I said: well honey thats ok and I dont really care if you are straight or gay as long as you make my day cus Ive been sitting here since half past nine been thinking dirty thoughts about you a thousand times show me the way cus I dont want to end up being a tragic heartbroken human being