

MNEK, Tongue

Swimming pool of passion mutual attraction we both know there is something going on there is something going on didn't wanna start this verse with those 3 little words we both know there is something going on
but I don't wanna play it wrong

So i'm not gonna say it
No i'm not wanna say it
I don't know how you take it
So I am not try to say it

Coz when I say it the past each time didn't last so I'ma tryna not to say it but it feels like I might say it so I am putting both hands over my mouth

I can only hope
nothing's gonna come out but there is on a tip of my tongue
I think I love you
I think you're the one
but there is on a tip of my tongue
I think I love you

no big deal explaining how I feel I don't know how has taken us so long why it has taken us so long so much hesitation for that kind of conversation

but I don't wanna play it wrong

So i'm not gonna say it
I don't know how you take it
So I am not try to say it

so I'ma tryna not to say it
but it feels like I might say it
