

Modern Day Escape, Parley

So fire at will!

Give me one last chance to make it through.

It's sink or swim, we're at the end.

I can see for miles over the ocean,

The castle walls are burning down.

We've got to find our way out...

So she'd some blood and sink some ships,

Take all their gold, let us fight with them.

We'll walk the plank, it seems like miles,

Hear the cannons blow.

So fire (fire) at will.

It's sink or swim, we're at the end.

I can see for miles over the ocean,

The castle walls are burning down.

We've got to find our way out...

We've got to find a way, We've got to find a... way...

It's sink or swim, we're at the end.

I can see for miles over the ocean,

The castle walls are burning down.

We've got to find our way out...

It's sink or swim, we're at the end,

(It's sink or swim),

The captain's going to sink the ship.
