

Modern Talking, Who will be there

The rain is getting stronger
I listen to the rain
And I can't wait no longer
Oh, please, come back again
If I could live forever
Baby I will live with you
If we can't be together
Baby, I will die, it's true
Who will be there - when the lights go out
Who will be there - my heart cries loud
Baby I swear, that I'll be there
If you need me
Who will be there - when I'm alone
Who will be there - where is my home
Who will be there - it's so unfair
Stay by my side
The summer was oh magic
Oh, baby just we two
Now times are getting tragic
And lonely without you
Oh, when my heart is crying
Baby, oh, it cries for you
And if our love is dying
Baby I will die, it's true
