

Modwheelmood, Gravity

This is not a song
It's a call for mental sanity
I hope that you will hear it again.
It's just that I'm alone,
and I'm falling down,
Gravity
Gravity, Look at Me,
(Hey, man, you go get some drinks)
Which is right or wrong,
I'm losing all stability
Whatever it takes, I'll set you free
I keep on changing minds
Best away from society
Society, Gravity
It's just another day spent thinking about
Yesterday, and I don't know
It's just another day gonna spend alone,
Just another day spent thinking about
yesterday, and I don't know
Just another day,
Just another prayer,
Just another
So what is going on,
Am I losing all stabilities
Whatever it takes, I'll set you free
I keep on changing minds
Best away from society
Society, Gravity
It's just another day spent thinking about
Yesterday, and I don't know
It's just another day gonna spend alone,
Just another day spent thinking about
yesterday, and I don't know
Just another day,
Just another prayer,
Just another
Gravity,
Look at me,
Can't you see what I wanna be
Gravity,
Look at me,

Looking' down,
right or wrong,
Even if it doesn't work for me,
Just another day gonna spend alone
Gravity, Can't you be,
Just let me eventually
Leave me alone,
Just another day,
Just another prayed

Hello,
I'm you,
Just a quick reminder,
I'm Blue
