

Moi Caprice, My Girl You Blush

Come on out, don't be another fool
We'll go anywhere anywhere
If half a heart has made your tongue a tool
Go everywhere that isn't here

If you're naked on a blue screen
We'll change the scene you're in
If you're blinded by a big beam
Half drunk with reddened skin

Then come on out, don't be another fool
We'll go anywhere, just anywhere
Half a heart from you will never do
Let's go everywhere that's far from here

Across town the sound of your jeans
Seems miracles away
I had dreams I was in your dreams
No matter where you'd stay
Tender is the night, it now seems
But not the waking day!

Despite no light I'll find you
I'll always be your salutary leech
And if the blindest kindness blinds you
All hell breaks loose when my arms go besiege

And every door will yield
And every window sunder into cells
Tonight you're sleeping with someone else
The only problem is that you're not sleeping at all

Please come on out, don't be another fool. We'll go anywhere
A billion endless worlds away from here

If we're happy on a barstool
We'll buy the bar we're in
If we're kicked out every art school
We'll paint each other's skin
If your jokes prove you an arch fool
I'll love you with a grin

And you'll blush,
You blush my girl you blush
