

Monika Ferens, Valentine's Day

Today's the Valentine's day
I'm not waiting for your signs
No kisses, no smiles
I really love my company
Today's the Valentine's day
I'm not staring at my door
No footsteps on the floor
Guess, all I thought of it was wrong
[Chorus]
It's so dim-witted
When you can't spend this day with anyone
It seems so stupid
I wish I changed my mind someday
Today's the Valentine's day
I'm walking alone to my home
I'm lonesome, I'm dejected
I bet you're having fun of me
Today's the Valentine's day
My room smells no flowers
Won't dress up no more
Won't be no one's entire world
[Chorus]
I think about you
But you're far away
I know you've never thought of me
And if I'm gone
Who is going to know?
Which of us will be sadder?
[Chorus 3x]
