

Monster Magnet, King Of Mars 2004

You can rape the world and be creative now
You can kiss the right side of your brain
They can tell the tarot for the rest of us
And I can crown me Tarzan, King of Mars

All the blazing suns
Suck up all the gods and punks
It's enough to change your life
And you know I love to come

I can see it in your eyes
I can see on TV
Keep it all for me babe, all forever

You can rape the world and be creative now
Woah, you can kiss the right side of your brain
They can tell the tarot for the rest of us
And I can crown me Tarzan, King of Mars
They can tell the tarot for the rest of us
And I can crown me Tarzan, King of Mars

You can rape the world and be creative now
Woah, you can kiss the right side of your brain
They can tell the tarot for the rest of us
And I can crown me Tarzan, King of Mars
They can tell the tarot for the rest of us
And I can crown me Tarzan, King of Mars
