

Monster Magnet, Stadium

We've got a map of the world torn up
And your futures five bucks a pound
I've seen your mum with her knees pinned back
You'll pay everything to hear that sound
We drove a truck to the ranch of life
And came back with another brain
So shake your ass at the scene tonight
And open wide
And let it drain
You'd better come down
Now I think you should
We've got a map of the world torn up
And your futures five bucks a pound
I've seen your mum with ??
You'll pay everything to hear that sound, baby
We drove a truck to the ranch of life
And came back with another brain
So shake your ass at the scene tonight
And open wide
And let it drain
You'd better come down
Now I think you should
You'd better come down
Now I think you should
