You smile at your devil as a goddess you try
You cry, take a look overhead in the sky
But then you know you're doing too much
This smile that you're faking is not the one I hide
Do you mind if at the end you're not the sexiest one
You smile at yo aur devil as he empties the sky
You cry for your god as a goddess you try
But don't you know you're doing too much
You cry but you never said "good bye"! (x8)
