

Monument, Fatal Attack

My father was the beast
Untamed and unleashed
I feel his power
Rising from within

I'm the unholy priest
My anger I release
I'll get you in the night
And make you scream

Walking in the shadows
I crawl through the dark
The damp streets of
East End will hide me

When you think you're safe
Walking home through the park
That's when I strike
With my fatal attack

Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Now there is
No turning back
Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Yeah, yeah
Yeah!

On this forsaken day
Your life of sin will fade
For pity and forgiveness
You will pray

No mercy, no release
I'll bring you to your knees
My stainless knife will cut you
Limb from limb

Walking in the shadows
I crawl through the dark
The damp streets of
East End will hide me

When you think you're safe
Walking home through the park
That's when I strike
With my fatal attack

Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Now there is
No turning back
Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Yeah, yeah
Yeah!

See the sweet red light
It's burning in the night
The alley way is dark
No one in sight

You will be in dismay
For I have come to play
My name is Jack
And I am here to stay

Walking in the shadows
The damp streets of

When you think you're safe
That's when I strike
With my fatal attack

Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Now there is
No turning back
Fatal attack
Fatal attack
Yeah, yeah
Yeah!
