

Monument, Midnight Queen

The moon is rising and Roxanna's dressed to kill
A smell of sweet perfume and looks that bring the boys
Down to their knees

(She's) on a roll tonight the Town is on her feet
The guys are speechless as she strolls down to the Dance floor singin oh oh oh oh oh....

She'll break your heart
She'll make you scream
She is the devil in high heels

She likes them young
Long haired and sweet
She is the deadly Midnight queen
She'll bring you to your knees

The Siren's calling you there's no escape tonight
She'll take what she wants you know you can't resist
Those sweet blue eyes

Can never break the spell you'll be her pray this night
She'll make the Heavens weep and when it's done she'll

Keep on singing oh oh oh oh oh....

If Devil had a heart
She'd tear that thing apart
And never give it back

So hear these words I say
Refuse to be her pray
She'll take your soul away
