

Moonface, Teary Eyes And Bloody

Teary eyes and bloody lips
Make you look like Stevie Nicks
Never knew that being cruel was such a cool thing to do

And teary eyes and bloody lips
Make you look like Stevie Nicks
We never knew that being cruel was such a cool thing to do

We used to laugh until we crashed our bikes
The moon was nothing but a rock in the sky
While all the kids and all the lads were falling down off the wall
But now we can surrender off the city we can pretend that it's a movie
We can embrace the blindness that comes with embracing the night
We can embrace the blindness that comes with embracing the night
3... 4...

We thought our darlings would recognize the smell of our skin and
I am sorry for the way that turned out
You look so beautiful then
You look so beautiful now
It is the fork in the river
It is the breaks down in the middle of the mirror
It is the party of suicide doors that we come to understand
That when we float in the water it's not the absence of the other,
But the absence of any one else that will drawn us in the end
