

MOONLIGHT HAZE, To the Moon and Back

Can you perceive my love from there unbreakable as diamonds?
It goes beyond space and time
There is no way to kill it
After a hundred thousand years
If we could meet
we would know
Nothing has changed
Nothing had died
Some things are just immortal Don't cry don't be upset

I still love you so bad
to the moon and back and I
Yes I miss you daily to the moon and back I'd go anywhere now
to the moon and back for you Hope my voice will reach you
to the moon and back

What would you tell me if you could see what I am becoming?
Would you be proud of all I've done to save myself from falling?
There is no answer to the questions they resound like a torment Still need you here
Need your advice
Why did you leave me so?
Cause my tears have never dried

I still love you so bad
to the moon and back and I
Yes I miss you daily to the moon and back
I'd go anywhere now

Time cannot heal scars that lie so deep inside this void of mine

I still love you so bad
to the moon and back and I
I'd go anywhere now
only for you

I still love you so bad
And I miss you daily
to the moon and back
I cry to the moon
But if I smile
Will you smile back?
