

Morrissey, Bonfire of Teenagers

Bonfire of Teenagers

Which is so high in May north-west sky

Oh, you should've seen her leave for the arena

On the way, she turned and waved and smiled: "Goodbye"

Goodbye

And the silly people sing: "Don't Look Back in Anger"

And the morons sing and sway: "Don't Look Back in Anger"

I can assure you I will look back in anger 'till the day I die

Bonfire of Teenagers

Which is so high in May north-west sky

Oh, you should've seen her leave for the arena

Only to be vapourized

Vapourized

And the silly people sing: "Don't Look Back in Anger"

And the morons swing and say: "Don't Look Back in Anger"

I can assure you I will look back in anger 'till the day I die

Go easy on the killer

Go easy on the killer

Go easy on the killer

Go easy on the killer
